People of the Book

Beginning Wednesday, July 16, Pastor Dave will lead a new mid-week summer worship called, "People of the Book". In past summers, we have had "Vespers," a Eucharistic service. We have also had "Wonderful Wednesdays of Worship," special musically based services. This summer, we will try our hand at a new style of abbreviated worship: "People of the Book." As with past services it will begin at 6:30 pm. Bring your Bible, because in one condensed summer service, Pastor Dave will plunge you into one of the short letters of the Apostle Paul. You will get depth, you will get a bit of overview, and you will gain a sense of mastery and companionship of the scriptures. Each Wednesday, "People of the Book," service will cover a different book: Galatians, Philipians, Ephesians, Colossians, 1st & 2nd Thessalonians, or 1st & 2nd Timothy. Discover through vivid teaching how fun and meaningful the scriptures can be.

We will combine our study worship will robust hymn singing. Our organists or pianists will be: Steve Hufnal, Isaiah Buhrke, and Lee Ann Blackmer. Don't miss this refreshing and engaging mid-week summer worship experience from Wednesday July 16th thru August 20th.
