

Johanna Schilling Concert

This Afternoon at 4:00 p.m.

whimsical and witty humor with which she carries herself ...if you have ever had the chance to talk to this basically shy person. Her persona wonderfully gives a complementary frame to her musical prowess.

Johanna will give a short concert this afternoon, February 26 at 4:00 p.m. here at Community United Methodist Church. The program will consist of 3 Chopin études (Ocean, Revolutionary, and Butterfly), a Chopin nocturne, Mozart's Variations on Twinkle Twinkle Little Star, Clair de Lune, and a rousing Russian toccata. You will be enthralled and delighted.

A short reception will follow the concert in fellowship hall should you like to visit a bit with Johanna. Nursery care will be provided for preschoolers and younger, in case you take advantage of it. Don't miss this wonderful occasion featuring the delights of piano music.

Since the start of September, we have been immensely blessed by the talents of Johanna Schilling. One only has to watch her posture, fluidity of motion at the keys, sensibility of musical mood, mastery of dynamics to realize how extraordinary talented this pianist is and how fortunate we are to have her here. Yet, equally compelling is the humility, grace,

Community United Methodist Church, Cedarburg
