Church News

Welcome Center — Are you looking for a fun and easy way to get involved? The Welcoming Committee is in need of people to staff our Welcome Center in Fellowship Hall this summer! The Welcome Center volunteer arrives at the Welcome Center 5 minutes before the end of service and is available to greet visitors and guests and answer questions for approximately 15-20 minutes after the service ends. If you are a people person, and enjoy talking with others, this just might be the perfect way to serve for you! If you have any questions, feel free to contact Sarah Lovy at (414)915-8273 or sarahl@dermonds.com.

Thursday Men's Study Group — We continue our look at "Lost Christianities: The battles for Scripture and the Faiths We Never Knew." Join us as we delve into this revealing book about early Christian beliefs, dogma, and teaching. We meet Thursdays at 7 a.m. for breakfast at PJ Pipers.

Financial Peace — Big change starts small! Whatever your money goals are, you can get there from here. Sign up to take the Financial Peace University Class this fall.

Where in the world is Pastor Dave?

Taken from Pastor Dave's Facebook Page:

July 16 "Today, I had the incredible privilege of worshipping with a congregation only eight years old, with no buildings, yet reaches almost 2,000 in the banquet room of a hotel conference center in Montgomery, AL over three Sunday morning services. They also have three other locations that all get the simulcast message, but utilizing their own live bands. (Add in those numbers!) Centerpoint Fellowship's pastor is John Schmidt - a very gifted bible teacher, adept and passionate leader, and unyielding in building a relational, large church of small groups. I was blessed not only to be inspired by the church and his immense talents, but to have lunch together for a couple of hours with John & his wife, Debbie. For those at CUMC that look at him and say he looks familiar ... this is Randy Roupp's cousin, both growing up in Kansas, their moms were sisters; Randy and John having the same grandma of a great and influential faith! Good Kansas farm food also probably helped."

July 18 "Hey Honey, Darlin, Sweetheart, Y'all - Southerners. Thank you, so very much! 3,685 miles traveled; scores of churches seen and staff interviews done; ordinary folk with great stories, insights, and exceptional southern hospitality. Thanks for toe tapping music, strong inviting accents, patience and good manners. Thanks for fantastic BBQ, fresh catfish, grouper, snapper, crab, shrimp and way too many biscuits. Thanks for helping me understand the Confederacy from a southern perspective; teaching me to listen more carefully not just speak a bit slower; for teaching me unflinchingly about history I'd rather ignore or stereotype: slavery. And thanks for reminding me that if I talk freely and easily about all the things I love, I sure can talk about Jesus easily too! Most of all - thank you to Lee Ann for positively allowing & encouraging this, CUMC folk for supporting me, and Lilly for a once in a lifetime gift."
