

Dave Ramsey's

Financial Peace UNIVERSITY

Worrying about a cash flow deficit this Christmas?
Why not get a budget and a plan?
Christmas financial recovery is available.

Today, January 12:

- 9:15 Adult Education Preview Sunday – Community Room – FPU team leaders will present a short overview of the FPU Flex course and its benefits along with other adult ed opportunities

Basics and Cost:

- Courses begin Sunday Feb. 2nd/or Monday Feb. 3rd and last for nine weeks. (8:55 to 10:00 and 4:00 to 5:30 and a potential offsite location on Monday evenings). The cost is $109 per family – about the same as two high end coffees per week.
- You receive a personal workbook (no one looks at your personal financial information during the course) and expert help via video of step by step advice to help you make a plan. Extra workbooks can be purchased for other family members taking the course.
- Through the group conversation time, you can get support and know that you are not alone in your financial questions and issues.

What do we do and is it successful?

- Week by week topics such as “how to make and stick to a budget” along with being on the same page as a partner, emergency spending and saving, college and retirement planning, insurance, investing, and much more.

- This popular course, has helped millions of people around the country regain a sense of control over their hard-earned money. We’ve offered it six times in our own faith community and it has made a difference for those who have taken this course.

- Practical worksheets and step by step instructions.

What do you need to do?

- Sign up at the kiosk indicate your interest and what class suits you. Talk to a FPU team leader. Registration information is online at the Ramsey website and will be available in mid January.
- Make a commitment to show up each week for class. You can attend any of the class timeframes/locations and that way you have options to attend when busy schedules overwhelm your time.
- Bring a friend or another couple and make this a coffee and conversation outing or an evening out.
- If you let us know in advance, we will try to arrange child care for the afternoon CUMC timeframe.

Make Financial Peace at CUMC your New Year's resolution!

After working with Family Promise as Coordinators for 6 years, Carla Schmidt and Val Nichols will be stepping down from those positions after CUMC's January 5th week of Family Promise. Two people—one man and one woman, or two women—are needed for this position. Carla and Val will be available to explain what's involved, and will be available for any questions that might come up in the future. Please prayerfully consider this “once every 10 week” service.

Church News

Men's Study Group — The Thursday Morning Men's group began reading and discussing "The World Jesus Knew," a book that examines the culture, beliefs, and customs during the time of Jesus. The author, Anne Punton, is an authority on the Jewish roots of Christianity. We are looking at a variety of the aspects of early Israeli culture, eg. clothes, education, language, living conditions. Through this text we are gaining a better understanding of the stories, characters, and teachings found in the Bible. We invite all men to spend an hour with us Thursday mornings at P. J. Piper's at 7 a.m. for breakfast and spirited discussion.

Women of Faith — Because our November meeting was canceled due to extreme cold weather, at our January meeting we will discuss two Chapters of John Ortberg's humorous and insightful book, "Everybody's Normal Til You Get to Know Them." Please join us tomorrow, January 13, at 1:15 p.m. in the church library to share the nuggets in Chapters 3 and 4.

Cribbage Club — Cribbage will be held January 19, 11:30 a.m. in the Wesley Room. Bring a sandwich/snack and a cold drink. Contact Marilyn Plaistow (262-391-7397) if you have questions. Everyone welcome!

Reconciling Ministries Network Community

A community of The Reconciling Ministries Network (RMN) is meeting regularly at Grand Ave. UMC in Port Washington. We are reading a book, using our Bibles, and inviting speakers to join us, so that we can become more aware and educated regarding matters of the UMC. For further information, please contact Pat Morrissey at patmorrissey19@gmail.com

Outreach

Pecans for Jail Literacy — The Mission Outreach committee has pecans of various flavors (plain pecans for $11.00, milk chocolate, and caramel clusters for $10.00) remaining to be sold. We will do so today and on Sunday, January 26, and this will be our last sale date for this year. You are welcome to buy pecans for yourself. But we also want to invite you to purchase pecans that will be donated to veterans at the VA hospital in Milwaukee. This is a great opportunity for you to donate to both the Jail Literacy Program and our veterans at the same time. Please help us "sell out"! Thank you for your generosity and compassion.

Save the Date for Hunger Task Force — CUMC will again be sorting food at the Hunger Task Force warehouse in Milwaukee. This will be on Saturday, February 29, from 9:00 am until about 12:00 pm. We will meet at CUMC at 8:00 am to carpool to Hunger Task Force, and we should be back by about 1:00 pm. Please consider joining us, as this is a fun time and one that is supportive of a very worthwhile project. Children must be at least 12 years old, and all workers must wear closed-toe shoes or boots. Please sign up on the kiosk in Fellowship Hall no later than Sunday, February 23.

First Quarter Coin Offering — The first quarter coin offering will be going to New Beginnings Are Possible in Milwaukee. The mission of New Beginnings are Possible is to develop family, career and community capable young adults through programming, mentoring and Christ-centered principles. As a Christian ministry, above all else, they believe the children need to develop a sense of themselves and how they can contribute to the Kingdom of God.

January Food Drive — CUMC will be collecting food for Family Sharing in the month of January. Family Sharing provides food, at no charge, to people in need in Ozaukee County.

All donations of food are distributed directly to those who need it. In addition, they provide: clothing, furniture, household items, information and referrals, school supplies, and jackets.

Human Relations Day — Special Sunday Offering on January 19. Turn on the news or drive around the outskirts of your town and you will find what Jesus called "the least of these." Those living in the margins of society, struggling to survive. People like: An immigrant teenager in Texas' poorest county, being recruited by a local gang; a father struggling for sobriety in Little Rock, Arkansas; an Oklahoma woman recently released from incarceration looking for work. Over and over Jesus served people like this, embracing them. And that's what we want to model as the people of The United Methodist Church. To continue the ministry of Jesus Human Relations Day was established as a Special Sunday that calls all of our churches to participate in helping all God's children to realize their potential.

Mittens, Hats & Scarves...OH MY — Special thank you to all who made or purchased mittens, hats, and scarves for our Christmas outreach for Northcott and UM Children's Services. Your donations were divided equally between the 2 agencies and were so greatly appreciated! To all who knit and crochet and like to shop for bargains--let's start on hats, mittens, and scarves for Christmas 2020.

Sunday School Preview

Join us today January 12
at 9:15 a.m. to preview adult Sunday School offerings.

"Souper" Bowl Fundraiser

The Outreach Committee is leading a "Souper" Fundraiser for Relay for Life on Super Bowl Sunday, February 2, 2020.

Volunteers are needed to help make soup to sell. What's your favorite? Quart containers and labels will be provided to package the soup to bring to CUMC on Saturday, February 1st for the "Souper Sale". Our goal is to have 100 quarts or more of soup for sale.

The Sale will be held after services on February 2nd for you to take home and enjoy during the Super Bowl!

A sign-up sheet is posted on the kiosk in Fellowship Hall for those willing to make soup/chili for this Fundraiser to benefit Relay for Life and the American Cancer Society and "kick-off" the CUMC Team fundraising for 2020.

Watch the bulletin for more information about the Soup Sale on February 2, 2020.
