

What do Methodists believe about death? Throughout history, people have wondered what happens immediately after death. While we may want a clear-cut answer, United Methodists do not provide one in our doctrinal statements. Instead, we are called simply to trust in God and know that we are in Christ's care and keeping. We are taught to find assurance by knowing and experiencing the eternal love of God. It is that faith which holds answers that humanity cannot yet understand. We find in Hebrews 11:1: "Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen."

Postlude

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Scripture for today - Romans 8:31-39
2 Corinthians 4:7-12, 1 Corinthians 13:8

CUMC has been blessed by many of our members throughout the years with financial gifts designated as memorial funds. A memorial donation is a way to honor both the deceased and their family. These gifts have had a major impact in our church and we are grateful. If you have questions about how to memorialize a loved one or set up a special gift at CUMC please speak with Kim Roupp.
