

DC: The Seat of Influence and Power

- A Lilly Presentation and Experience

Pastor Dave invites you to dress up a bit and be formal (in whatever that may mean to you). We'll hobnob and mingle, acting like big shot politicians, influence peddling special interest liaisons, or Washington DC socialites in Fellowship Hall for the second of Pastor Dave's Lilly presentations on his travels this past summer. You are invited and asked to bring your favorite appetizer or finger food as your "admittance fee." Simply drop them off at the serving area of fellowship hall before you leave your coats at the cloak room. Then, let's all chit chat, socialize, and get caught up-to-date. Johanna Schilling will elegantly play piano as we act like big shots. On this occasion, a little bit of bragging, embellishment, and tall tales are well in order: get into it and have some fun!

All the while you will be grazing and eating from the buffet of appetizers you have provided along with some fancy treats and a few culinary surprises thanks to Lilly. Of course, there will be some bubbly (what Washington event would be held without it) ... though it will be carbonated grape juice. When we have enjoyed about 45 minutes of rubbing elbows, telling stories and playfully being big shots, we will move into the sanctuary where Pastor Dave will give another slide show and talk - this time about his experiences in Washington, DC (awash in power, influence and money) and Philadelphia (the origin of our democracy). Purchase your last minute tickets this morning: cost is only $5.00 and your fancy or favorite appetizer to be shared by all. Tonight, starting at 5:00 p.m. concluding at 7:00 p.m. Please join us!
